

Energetic Solutions for Complete Harmony

LIFE System USA is dedicated to delivering the finest state-of-the-art stress management device possible.

There now are two generations of the L.I.F.E. System. Each is available for professionals and/or consumers alike. Both use a software program with hardware accessories interfacing with the body at 5 places. The headband, and the wrist and ankle bands contain conductive flexible graphite and vinyl materials. (2nd Generation Includes 8 colored L.E.D.'s) These create communication points with the body's electromagnetic field and complete the interface. This is the biofeedback system, through which assessment and energetic balancing is delivered. (The 2nd Generation Model also includes a sophisticated Music Therapy Module.)

Earlier "Point-Probe" biofeedback devices presented control anomalies and potential interference originating with the technician. The L.I.F.E. System's 5-Point Interface design has eliminated all of these problems. All electromagnetic information comes directly from the client. The L.I.F.E. System also uses a revolutionary and proprietary "Quad-Mode Entrainment Process" which facilitates enhanced communication with the client.
